A Season of Thanksgiving

How are you doing at preparing your heart to overflow with thanksgiving?

It definitely takes a commitment. I'm doing the study alongside you and I didn't think the printer was ever going to stop running last Tuesday when I printed off the lesson. It's good stuff, though! God's Word always is.

It's very easy to not find time to do this study, but I'm prayering that God will not let you skip this. I pray that He will not give you peace until you have spent time with Him each day. And, I pray that He will bless you beyond imagination when you give Him your time.

I pray for your heart and your life to overflow with love and gratitude. Not just this month, but at all times.

Happy Thanksgiving!!

Jennifer

16 Days of Thanksgiving (continued...)

Grab your notebook and Bible and get ready to explore. Don't rush through! Take your time to wander through the scripture and let God speak to you.

Wondering about Days 1-7?
The entire “A Season of Thanksgiving” series is available at: http://www.hopeinthelord.org/Downloadable_PDF_Bible_Study_Files.html

Before you start...
Look ahead to Day 12 (Sunday) and be praying about your participation in a group fast. If that day is a bad day, you might want to swap that lesson to a different day when it will work.

Day 8 – Wednesday, Nov. 18
1. Pray, asking God to open your eyes and heart to His truth.

2. Let’s start go back again to the early days. Read Genesis 14:1-4 and 21:1-4 for background. Then read Genesis 21:8-21 for the lesson.
   a. What did God tell Abraham to do (v.12)?
   b. What was the result (v.14)?
   c. Why do you think God would allow that to happen?
   d. How do you imagine Hagar felt?
   e. Have you ever felt that desperate?

3a. What instructions did God give Hagar (v.17-21)?
   b. What promises did God give Hagar (v.17-21)?

4a. How does this passage show us that God’s plans don’t always make sense to us?
   b. How does this passage show us that God is always trustworthy?
   c. How does this passage show us that it is possible to be thankful in even the most desperate of situations?

5. Write a prayer expressing thanking God for being trustworthy and worthy of thanks. Thank Him for specific instances He has shown you this in your life.

6. Pray for your upcoming fast.
Day 9 – Thursday, November 19
1. Pray, asking God to open your eyes and heart to His truth.

   a. From Exodus 13:17-18, why did God lead the Israelites on the longer route rather than the shorter, quieter route?
   b. Describe a time in your life when God took you somewhere via the long route.
   c. In what ways did you benefit from the long route?

2a. Where in your life are you currently on the long route?
   b. Are you complaining and discontented with the long route, or are you trusting God and looking for His blessings along the way?
   c. What will you do to change your perspective?

3. Based on this passage, why should you be thankful for the long route?

4. Write two prayers:
   a) First, confess to God your complaining and bitterness. Ask Him for eyes to see the blessings and for a heart of obedience to be a quick learner.
   b) Second, pour out your thanks to Him for giving you what is best for you and not what is easiest for you.

5. Pray for your upcoming fast.

Day 10 – Friday, November 20
1. Pray, asking God to open your eyes and heart to His truth.

2. We’ll continue with the Israelites and their story of God’s deliverance. Read Exodus 13:20-14:31.
   a. The Israelites were camped in a place of no escape. According to Exodus 14:2, why were they there?
   b. Why do you think God directed them to camp there?

3a. Where in your life has God brought you to an “impossible” place with no escape?
   b. How do Matthew 19:26 and Mark 10:27 change your thinking?
   c. Do you believe these verses to be true? (If yes, praise God. If no, ask God for faith.)

4a. Why did Pharaoh go after the Israelites (v14:4)?
   b. Why do you think God did this?
   c. Why did God do this (v14:17-18)?
   d. How might this apply to your “impossible” situation?

5a. Were the Israelites ever in real danger? Explain. (See 14:14, 14:19-20)
   b. Again, how might this apply to your “impossible” situation?

5. Pour out to God whatever He has placed on your heart.

6. Pray for your upcoming fast.

Day 11 – Saturday, November 21
1. Pray, asking God to open your eyes and heart to His truth.

   a. What specific things did the Lord do in these passages?
      -- 14:14
      -- 14:19-20
      -- 14:21
      -- 14:24
      -- 14:25
      -- 14:26-27
      -- 14:30
b. What specific things would you like God to do for you?
c. Write a prayer expressing to God these specific requests.

3a. How has this passage changed your thinking about seemingly impossible situations?
b. How do you now see a need to give thanks in seemingly impossible situations?
c. How does an “it’s all about me” attitude affect all this?
d. How has this changed your thinking about how God meets our needs?

4. As a result, what will you do so that God will be glorified and know by the things He has done? (Be specific.)

5. Write a prayer giving God glory, praise and thanks.

6. Pray for your upcoming fast.

Day 12 – Sunday, November 22
1. Think back over your lessons, reflecting on what God has taught you. Then, pray, thanking God for all the things you can think of to be thankful for.
(Yes, that’s all, so take your time!)

2. Join our group in a day of fasting. God has given you so much, what can you give Him to show your thanks? Think of what you greatly appreciate and be willing to give it up for Him. Or, think of what you might have a tendency to put before Him and give up that. For me, it will be food. Not water, just food. For some of you, it may be your television or computer. Whatever you give up, do it up for His glory and praise.

Day 13 – Monday, November 23
1. Pray, asking God to open your eyes and heart to His truth.

   a. Write out this passage.
   b. Underline each representation of God and what He will do. Circle each representation of you, the person He will do it for.

3a. Put a square each “when.”
b. Note that God uses “when” and not “if.” God’s words in His Bible are significant. What do you think God’s word choice of “when” and not “if” means?

4. Read Isaiah 43:4-7.
   a. Rewrite each verse placing your name after each “you” and replacing “men” and “people” with “Christ.”
   b. What does that mean to you?
   c. How far will the Lord go for you (v.5-6)?
   d. What do you think it means to be “called by Christ’s name”?
   e. Are you called by His name?

5. We know that Christians and non-Christians both suffer and both die. When a Christian is seemingly “burned by the fire,” how do verses 4-7 show that God is still with them and has not really turned them over to the fire?

   a. What waters, rivers and fires has the Lord brought you through?
   b. What will you do, specifically, the next time you face the waters, rivers and fires of life?

7. Write a prayer expressing your thankfulness to God based on today’s passage.
Day 14 – Tuesday, November 24
1. Pray, asking God to open your eyes and heart to His truth.

2. Read Psalm 91.
   a. List all the things that describe the Lord and His protection.
   b. In each of these passages, record who the protection is for:
      --91:2
      --91:9
      --91:14
      --91:15

3. Reread v.9-11.
   a. Remembering yesterday's lesson of “when,” not “if,” and considering John 16:33, what do you think verse10 means?
   b. Does it mean you will never face challenges or suffering? Explain.
   c. Follow up with verse 15. Does this indicate that Christians will face trouble or live a trouble-free life?

4a. Where do you usually turn in times of trouble?
   b. Where should you turn in times of trouble?
   c. What specific things will you do the next time you face trouble?

5. End with a prayer to God based on Psalm 91, thanking Him for his protection.

Day 15 – Wednesday, November 25
1. Pray, asking God to open your eyes and heart to His truth.

2. Read Philippians 4:4-7.
   a. How many times does Paul tell us to “rejoice”?
   b. Why should we rejoice (v.5)?
   c. Because the Lord is near, what should we do (v.6)?
   d. In what things should we pray (v.6)?
   e. And with what attitude should we pray for all things (v. 6)?
   f. What is the result of this (v.7)?

3. Look back over your notes.
   a. How do the passages we've studied support giving thanks to God in ALL things?
   b. What will you do to rejoice daily?
   c. What will you do to help others rejoice daily and know that the Lord is near?
   d. How will you be different this Thanksgiving Day?

Day 16 – Thursday, November 26
1. Pray, thanking God for who He is and what He does for you. Thank Him for that which is easy and that which is difficult. Thank Him for the sunny days and stormy nights of your life. Thank Him for His son, Jesus. Thank Him and praise Him.

2. Go let your gentleness be evident to all. Amen.

I am thankful today for your heart and for your dedication to the Lord.

May God bless you and keep you,
Jennifer
